

For Immediate Release: April 30, 2024

Contact:
Michael Lavelle
(813) 255-4520 (cell)
(813) 974-3568

Approximately 77% of the protesters were observed by police. The University of South Florida Police Department remained in regular communication with protesters about the expectations for maintaining a peaceful event.

Approximately 77% of the protesters were observed by police. The University of South Florida Police Department remained in regular communication with protesters about the expectations for maintaining a peaceful event.

Several times protesters were given verbal instructions by police that the assembly was now considered unlawful and warnings that failure to comply would result in arrest. The University of South Florida Police Department remained in regular communication with protesters about the expectations for maintaining a peaceful event.